Vienna, December 23, N. S. The laſt Journal from the Queen of Hungary's Army in Bohemia, of the 20th Inſtant at Wittingau, gives an Account, that the French, Bavarians and Saxons having formed a conſiderable Body to penetrate into Moravia, and raiſe Contributions and take Winter-Quarters there, Prince Lobcowitz aſſembled haſtily 15 or 16,000 Men, and made ſuch Diſpoſitions, that the Allies thought fit to poſtpone their Deſign at leaſt, and retired after having had a few Men killed by the Hungarian Huſſars. The Allies have likewiſe attempted to find out a Paſſage into Upper Auſtria by the Mountains in the Biſhoprick of Paſſaw, but found it impracticable. Their Head Quarters are at Frauenberg. On the 18th a Detachment of Huſſars having paſſed the Moldaw near Budeweis, came up with a whole Company of French Grenadiers, which they partly killed, and partly made Priſoners. Count Khevenhuller, at his Arrival at St. Polten, aſſembled a Council of War of all the Generals who are to ſerve under him; after which he proceeded Yeſterday Morning for Waidſhoffen, the general Rendezvous of his Troops.

Vienna, Dec. 27, N. S. The laſt Journal from the Army in Bohemia, is of the 25th Inſtant, N. S. and imports, That on the 23d his Royal Highneſs went to Budeweis with a conſiderable Body of the Army, where they paſſed the Moldaw with the Artillery, and marched on the 24th in two Columns to Wodnian,
